

ORDINANCE NO. 2013 - 3
AN ORDINANCE OF THE TOWNSHIP OF SOUTHAMPTON, CUMBERLAND COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA, REGULATING
RESIDENTIAL RENTAL UNIT OCCUPANCY
AND PROVIDING FOR INSPECTIONS AND PENALTIES FOR NONCOMPLIANCE.

RESIDENTIAL RENTAL PROPERTY ORDINANCE

WHEREAS, the Township of Southampton, Cumberland County, Pennsylvania has determined that dwelling units not occupied by the property owner are frequently maintained at a standard significantly less than owner-occupied dwelling units and that such failure to maintain those units can and frequently does result in dwelling units which are unsafe, unsanitary and, in many instances, not maintained to the minimum standards required by the various fire prevention, building, housing, property maintenance, electrical and plumbing codes in effect in the Township of Southampton, Cumberland County, Pennsylvania; and

WHEREAS, the Township of Southampton Township, Cumberland County, Pennsylvania, makes the following findings;

1. In recent years, many formerly private homes have been turned into residential rental units. Those rental units have oftentimes been rented to individuals who, because they have no ownership interest in the property, have allowed the properties to deteriorate. In addition, problems have occurred because many tenants, because they have no ownership interest in the real estate, have not been concerned about following Codes of the Township, including Codes which govern maintenance and safety of the property.
2. In many cases, the owners of the properties live long distances from the Township of Southampton, Cumberland County, Pennsylvania. As a result, property maintenance of many rental units in the Township has been substandard.
3. The aforementioned findings have caused problems for other home owners near the rental units; and

WHEREAS, the Township of Southampton, Cumberland County, finds that it is necessary to have a continuing procedure for the registration of rental properties and Landlords who engage in the business of rentals; and

WHEREAS, the Township of Southampton, Cumberland County, finds it to be desirable and in the public interest to enact the following ordinance providing for the regular and systematic inspection of these properties to insure their continued compliance with applicable Township of Southampton, Cumberland County codes; and

WHEREAS, this Township, pursuant to 53 P.S. Sections 66506 and 66527, Act of May 1, 1933, P.L. 103, No. 69, as amended, has the authority to adopt ordinances necessary for safety and general welfare in the Township; and

WHEREAS, this Township, pursuant to 53 P.S. §66517 has the authority to enact and enforce ordinances to govern and regulate buildings and the inspection thereof.

NOW THEREFORE, be it ordained and enacted as follows:

The identity, address and telephone number(s) of a person who is designated as local agent hereunder shall be provided by the owner to the Township and the owner shall keep all such information current and updated as it changes.

Section 9 Maintenance and Inspections.

A. The owner shall maintain the premises in compliance with the applicable codes of the Township and shall regularly perform all routine maintenance and shall promptly make any and all repairs necessary to fulfill this obligation.

B. Except as provided following in this section, it shall be unlawful to occupy or let to others for occupancy any residential rental unit which has not been currently inspected as provided by this article. The foregoing notwithstanding, during the initial registration process for a residential rental unit no property shall be considered out of compliance with the inspection requirements of this article until after the initial property inspection hereunder. This notwithstanding, payment of the annual inspection fee shall be required if the property is to be rented for residential purposes. The requirements for periodic inspections shall be as follows:

C. Each residential unit shall be inspected by the Code Enforcement Officer or other designee of the Township at least one time in every thirty-six (36) month period. This inspection shall include the exterior and interior of the premises being inspected and shall be conducted in compliance with the Township "Residential Rental Property Inspection Ordinance". The owner shall permit inspections of any rental dwelling unit by the Code Enforcement Officer. Inspections shall be scheduled at least seven (7) days in advance and shall occur during normal business hours of 9:00 AM through 4:00 PM local time Monday through Friday, township holidays excepted, unless other inspection times are agreed to by the Owner and the Codes Officer. For such purpose, and for any re-inspection required hereunder, the owner shall provide access to the property to Township representatives. A unit where inspection access is denied will not be issued a Rental Occupancy License until inspection access is provided. A fee by Resolution shall be charged for the initial inspection or subsequent routine inspections, but appropriate fees may be charged for re-inspections if violations are found. In the event that a dwelling unit fails to pass the initial inspection a follow up inspection will be scheduled within sixty (60) calendar days at no additional charge.

1. If the inspection of a residential rental unit discloses code deficiencies, the Residential Rental Property Ordinance Officer or other Township designee shall issue a notice of violation. The notice of code violation shall set forth the following:
 - a. The street address or appropriate description of the subject property;
 - b. The date of the inspection;
 - c. The identity of the inspector;
 - d. A list of the code deficiencies;
 - e. The date by which the owner is to accomplish repairs and/or otherwise eliminate the code deficiencies; and
 - f. Notice that, if the conditions are not repaired or the premises are not otherwise brought into compliance with the applicable code within the time specified the owner may be prosecuted and/or the residential rental unit may be placarded as unfit for human occupancy in accordance with the Township Residential Rental Property Inspection Code. Only the Township or designee shall have authority to institute prosecution proceedings under the terms of this article.
2. Upon receiving notice of any code violations from the Code Enforcement Officer, the owner shall promptly take action, or cause the necessary action to be taken, to abate the offending condition and eliminate the violation.

D. Upon the expiration of the time specified to accomplish repairs or otherwise bring the premises into code compliance, or upon notice to the Township from the owner that the repairs have been accomplished or code deficiencies otherwise eliminated, whichever occurs first, the Code Enforcement Officer or other Township designee shall re-inspect the subject residential rental unit.

1. In the event such re-inspection discloses that the owner accomplished the repairs or the code deficiencies have otherwise been eliminated, the Code Enforcement Officer or other Township designee shall issue a Rental Occupancy License to the owner or local agent in accordance with this article.
2. In the event such re-inspection discloses that the owner failed to accomplish the repairs or otherwise eliminate the code deficiencies, the Code Enforcement Officer may schedule additional re-inspections or may pursue prosecution as otherwise provided in the Township Residential Rental Property Inspection Ordinance.

E. For the purpose of enforcing this ordinance, the Code Enforcement Officer or designee of the Township may seek to obtain a search warrant issued by a competent authority in accordance with applicable legal standards for the purpose of compelling an inspection of a residential rental unit. The refusal to provide inspection access does not limit the Township to the remedy that the unit is determined not to be a qualified residential unit, but the Township may also seek a search warrant. Refusal to allow entry of the residential rental unit by the Code Enforcement Officer of the Township to inspect the said unit shall be a violation of this Ordinance.

F. The owner, tenant, or any other person with the approval the owner or owner's designated agent may request an inspection of the dwelling unit at any time. Application for a requested inspection must be made on the appropriate form issued by the Township and the fee for this inspection must be paid in full at the time of the request. The inspection will be conducted within fifteen (15) days of the receipt of the inspection fee. A written inspection report of the requested inspection will be delivered to the person making the request and to the owner within ten (10) days of completion of the inspection. Any defects or violations uncovered during a requested inspection will be subject to the correction process outlined above. The Complainant shall pay the inspection fee if the complaint is not found valid. The Owner shall pay the inspection fee if the complaint is found valid.

Section 10 Rental Occupancy License.

- A. The Township will issue a Rental Occupancy License upon the occurrence of all of the following:
1. Upon receipt of the fully completed registration form and the payment of the appropriate license fee to the Township.
 2. After verification of all information submitted in the application process.
 3. Upon inspection of the residential rental unit during which the inspecting officer does not note any violations of the codes referenced in the definition of "codes" above, or;
 4. Upon re-inspection of the residential rental unit, confirming that violations noted in previous inspections have been satisfactorily resolved.
- B. Issuance of a Rental Occupancy License shall represent compliance with the registration and inspection requirements of this article but shall not denote compliance with any other applicable code nor any standard of safety.
- C. If, after a license has been issued, it is determined that false information was supplied on an application for registration of a rental unit the license shall immediately become null and void and the owner shall be considered in violation of this Ordinance.

Section 11 Fees.

The fees for registration, inspection, re-inspection, follow up inspection, inspections requested by owners or tenants, missed inspection appointment fees, and any other fee required in the administration of this Ordinance shall be established by resolution contemporaneously with the adoption of this ordinance and may be reviewed and changed from time to time by resolution of the Board of Supervisors of the Township.

Section 12 Non-liability of Township.

The issuance of a Rental Occupancy License is not a representation by the Township that the residential rental unit inspected and/or the building in which it is located does not contain any violation of any of the codes referenced in the definition of "codes" above. Rather, the issuance of a Rental Occupancy License represents that on the date of inspection, no material violation of any of said codes was noted by the inspector. Neither the enactment of this article nor the issuance of a Rental Occupancy License is a guarantee to any person that no code violations exist in the premises inspected, nor shall there be imposed any liability upon the Township for any errors or omissions which resulted in the issuance of such certificate, nor shall the Township bear any liability not otherwise imposed by law.

Section 13 Appeals.

The owner of a residential rental unit, who has been cited or who is aggrieved by a decision of the Code Enforcement Officer or other Township designee may, within 30 days of the date of receipt of the notice of violation or the time fixed for repairs, whichever is shorter, appeal the decision in accordance with applicable provisions of the Township Residential Rental Property Inspection Ordinance.

Section 14 Codes Violations.

Nothing in this article shall preclude or prohibit the Code Enforcement Officer or other Township designee from identifying any code violations or inspecting any property according to the terms of any of the referenced codes at any time, whether or not the particular premises is scheduled for periodic inspection under the terms of his article.

Section 15 Violations and Penalties.

A. The failure of any owner to effect corrections as provided in this article shall be considered a violation of the Township Residential Rental Property Ordinance and the procedures and penalties prescribed therein shall be applicable.

B. The failure of any owner to schedule an inspection or re-inspection as provided in this article shall result in the issuance of a notice to the owner that the property is not a qualified residential rental unit, in which event it shall be unlawful for any person to occupy or to let to others for occupancy the subject premises until the unit becomes a qualified residential rental unit after inspection and compliance with violation notices.

C. Any person, firm or corporation who shall violate any provision of this ordinance shall, upon being found to have committed the violations in a civil enforcement action before a District Justice, pay a civil penalty not to exceed Six Hundred Dollars ($600.00) per violation. Each day that the violation continues shall be deemed a separate offense and punishable as such. The Township may enforce this ordinance in equity or through injunctive relief in addition to or in lieu of such civil action before the District Justice. If the penalty for the violation of this ordinance is not timely paid and the person, firm or corporation upon whom the penalty was imposed is found to have been liable therefore in civil proceedings, the violators shall be liable for the penalty imposed including additional daily penalties for continuing violations, plus court costs and reasonable attorney fees incurred by the Township in the enforcement proceedings. Any fine which remains unpaid and outstanding after the time specified therein for payment shall be grounds for the imposition of a municipal lien upon the premises as provided by law. Such a lien may be reduced to judgment and enforced and collected as provided by law, together with interest at the legal rate and court costs. The remedies provided by this subsection are not exclusive and the Township and its Code Enforcement Officer may invoke such other remedies available under this Ordinance or the applicable codes, ordinances or statutes, including where appropriate, condemnation proceedings or declaration of premises as unfit for habitation; or suspension, revocation or non-renewal of the license issued hereunder.

D. In the instance of repeated violations of this ordinance, whether for the same or similar offenses or for various offenses, the Township may, upon the owner being found to have committed the violations in a civil enforcement action before a District Justice, revoke the Occupancy License, in addition to any other remedies provided in this ordinance. Said revocation shall be effective for a period of up to one year, at which time a new application for registration may be submitted and shall be reviewed in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance. Three license revocations attributed to an owner shall result in a permanent revocation.

Section 16 Exceptions.

A. Notwithstanding any other provision to the contrary, a rental license shall not be required for, and this ordinance shall not apply to, any of the following:

1. Any property that is owned and offered for rent as a residential dwelling unit by an accredited college or university so long as the property is located on the campus of the college or university and that the occupants of the dwelling units are currently enrolled as full time students of the college or university.
